

Hello:

My name is George Karp. I am an Actor, Singer, Dancer, Writer, Composer, Instrumentalist, Comedian, and a great entertainer. I would like to take this opportunity to tell you about my resumé, and my ability to fulfill major starring roles.

I am 23 years old and from the very beginning of my career, I have been recognized as someone who will someday be a great star.

In 1971, Bobby Green of the U.S.O. saw the spark in me and compared me to a young Paul McCartney. Immediately after this I toured Europe with a U.S.O. Show called Billy Jo and Me-- a vocal duo. I remember Billy Jo's words when he first saw me perform: "I don't know what the men will think of you, but the nurses will love you." As it turned out, everyone loved me.

After that I began to write a new musical, at least 60 songs which are all extremely fresh and exciting.

Later, I appeared in a musical revue at the Burbank Chamber of Commerce. I was highlighted in this revue, appearing in over half the songs, and spotlighted in several solos--more than any other cast member, including two which were the high point and finale of the show.

I placed second in the vocal division of the County Battle of the Singers. At this concert, before a packed audience, I received great cheers and signed autographs backstage.

I next toured the United States with Smash, a recording group. Although I was not singing on these tours, I was shining perhaps brighter than anyone else.

I was politely mobbed for an hour after each show by crowds of young teenage girls who asked for my autograph and took pictures of me. The girls were wonderful, we all enjoyed each other and everyone had a great time.

I began my solo career and was enthusiastically received at talent nights in San Francisco night spots.

I study ballet and modern jazz dancing from some of the top professionals in Los Angeles.

Since 1992 I have joined the ABC Agency and have been concentrating upon the total development of my talents: acting, singing, dancing, performing on musical instruments, composing, writing, comedy, and impressions (Teddy Kennedy, John Wayne, and Elvis Presley). I can pick up any impression quickly-- almost instantly.

I have composed two lengthy vocal works. Each calls upon my ability to sing, act, dance, and carry the shows alone. People to whom I have shown them have expressed great awe and said that my performances were truly magical.

Yours truly,
George S. Karp
